

Values & Discernment

Avoid Divisiveness

Identify if a topic is crucial to student safety or merely an external political debate. Pivot to shared campus values.

Uphold Integrity

You don't need to agree with everyone to respect them. Hold your values without imposing them on the dialogue.

Safety Anchor

Always bring the conversation back to: "How does this discussion affect the safety and belonging of our community?"