

What is True You?

True You is a dedicated reflection session that gives students the chance to pause and think about their Summer Springboard journey.

It's a time to explore their thoughts on college, potential majors, career paths, and social experiences, helping them gain clarity and direction as they prepare for the next step in their academic and personal lives