

TRUE COLORS

In this exercise, we will:

- Seek to discover the qualities and characteristics of our own particular personality style or type;
- Gain an understanding of other personality styles

Key Outcomes of this exercise:

- True Colors is a metaphor
  - Metaphors are a way of describing something by comparing it to something else - in this case colors! Metaphors help us picture things more clearly and usually make our writing or talking more exciting.
- Each person is a unique blend of the four colors or styles—a spectrum.
- There are no bad or good colors.
- There are wide individual variations within each color spectrum.
