

11. Dress Expectations and Name Tags

- Students are encouraged to select clothing that supports a respectful program environment.
- Attire should reflect the educational nature of the program and contribute to a community where all participants feel comfortable and respected
- Clothing worn during the program should not include:
 - Language or imagery that is disrespectful, offensive, or discriminatory
 - Messaging that targets or degrades individuals based on genres, sexual orientation, culture, religion, ethnicity, or other protected characteristics
 - Advertisements or references to tobacco, alcohol, drugs, illegal substances, weapons, or illegal activities
 - Symbols or messaging that promotes violence
 - Undergarments that are visible as outerwear
- Students are required to wear their name tags at all times while participating in the program. Name tags must be clearly visible and worn on the outermost layer of clothing
 - If a student forgets or loses their name tag, they should notify the campus leadership as soon as possible so that a replacement can be issued
- Wednesday excursions are designed to introduce students to professional environments. Students are encouraged to dress in professional or business-casual attire that reflects the setting of this activity
- Students participating in Saturday and Sunday excursions are asked to wear the blue Summer Springboard program T-shirt provided by the program on one of those selected days
