

12. Respect for Program Staff, Instructors and Students

- Summer Springboard is committed to fostering a safe, inclusive, and respectful environment for all participants. We honor and value every individual, regardless of race, ethnicity, gender identity, sexual orientation, religion, socioeconomic background, or physical, sensory, or mental health condition
- Students are expected to treat peers, staff, and instructors with respect and civility at all times. The following behaviors are strictly prohibited:
 - Discrimination, racism, microaggressions, or bullying of any kind
 - Verbal or physical threats, including play fighting
 - Offensive language, harassment, intimidation, or disruptive behavior