

13. Commitment to the Program

- Students are expected to actively engage in all program activities and approach each experience with an open mind.
- A certificate of completion is earned through participation and adherence to program expectations; it is not automatically awarded.
- Summer Springboard reserves the right to withhold a certificate of completion in cases of Code of Conduct violations or lack of participation.

