

Art of Investigation

Day 3: The First Signs of Tension

Setting:

Day 3 (Tuesday) of the second session at UCLA. Staff have completed one full session together and are comfortable in their roles.

What Happens

During the afternoon free period, Priya notices Maya and Jordan sitting together outside the dorm, laughing and talking closely. It appears to be a warm, friendly interaction. Later that evening, during clubs, Maya pulls Priya aside and tells her that Jordan told her he has feelings for her, but that she does not feel the same way. Maya says she doesn't want to make it a big deal but feels a little awkward.

Priya tells Maya that she handled it maturely and encourages her to let her know if anything changes. Priya does not plan to bring this to the staff meeting that evening, noting it to herself as a minor interpersonal moment.

Also that night during the free time period before bed checks, Eric notices Jordan sitting alone outside of his room, visibly quiet. When Eric asks if he's okay, Jordan says he's fine and that he just needed a minute to himself. Eric notes the behavior but doesn't probe further.