

Wrapping up a session

The close out of a session is important especially as students depart because it ensures families that we have delivered on our mission and promise to their children. The following action items are to be reviewed, delegated, and completed after student departure:

- ☐ Have you notified HQ that all students have departed safely?
- ☐ Have you debriefed as a team?

While ensuring students have departed safely is important, wrapping up the session with your team is a vital part of being a Director.

- ☐ Debrief with your team as a group
- ☐ 360 Reviews and Feedback
