

Why True You?

- Students get a chance to understand all the pieces of the Summer Springboard experience outside of solely academic courses
- Helps create clarity and confidence around college decisions and the learning environment students want to be a part of
- Students will gain confidence in articulating the value of their Summer Springboard experience to various audiences