

Disciplinary Process

Step 3: Dismissal from the Program

- Violation of a written contract or other serious misconduct may result in immediate dismissal from the program
- Dismissal decisions are made in consultation with Summer Springboard Headquarters Staff, Program Director, and Campus Leadership
- Students who are dismissed from program will be required to return home on the next available flight or transportation at the expense of their parent or guardian.
- Program tuition and fees are non-refundable in cases of dismissal
- Dismissal from the program is final, and students may not return to the program once they have been removed
