

“Whew, Day 1 was A LOT!”

Scenario:

- It's 9:30 PM on the first Monday. You finally get a moment to sit and reflect on the day.....
 - Several mentors were unsure of their classroom locations.
 - They arrived to pick up their student 10 minutes behind schedule.
 - You found out two students sat alone during lunch.
 - Preparing for the boundary walk, several students were late meeting their mentor.
 - A few students decided to swap mentor groups w/o permission; the mentors didn't notice.
 - During the club fair, the sports club didn't have their poster created so the student didn't know there was a sports club being offered.
- What are some possible reasons behind these mishaps? Where did we drop the ball?
