

Scenario 2

Update 2: Luckily the staff member that helped Hector earlier was nearby and happened to be carrying his own Epipen. He was just reprimanded and told that he was not allowed to give out his personal medication to students. He was hesitant to administer but does anyway. Hector is visibly relieved.

